Squalling children, scolding wife, Were not the pest of my poor life; Where'er I lived, in house or flats, My plague has been those horrid Rats. They are our meat, our bread and shoes. We could not have a quiet snooze. One day my wife did chance to dose. They rigned my halfy by the ness. They pinned my baby by the nose. CHORUS R-r-rats! Rais! Rough on Rais! Hang your dogs and drown your cats; We give a plan for every man To clear his house with Roys H on Rais.

I got a cat, I set a trap, And thought to have a quiet nap, But scarce in but we snug were laid, When round the room the villains played, My wife jumped out upon the floor, To strike a light, but soon did roar, As well she might, for you must know, The steel-trap had her by the toe. CHORUS,-Reveats! Rats! Rats! Rough on Eats, etc.

But Rats were not the only pest, To spoil our food, and spoil our r But now I've got the tip at last, and soundly sleep, and cat quite fast for we have banished all the crew,
